After a young couple brought their new baby home, the wife suggested that her husband should try his hand at changing diapers. "I'm busy," he said, "I'll do the next one." The next time came around and she asked again. The husband looked puzzled, "Oh! I didn't mean the next diaper. I meant the next baby!" reader Slim W., Charlotte, NC

Two hillbillies were sitting on the front porch when a large truck hauling rolls of sod went by.

One hillbilly said to the other: "That's what I'm going to do when I hit the lottery."

The other hillbilly asked, "Do what?"

The first hillbilly replied, "Send my grass out to be mowed."

If at first you don't succeed. Try doing it the way your wife told you.

Hey DEVILer.. I called the wrong number today. I said 'Hello, is Jenet there?' A woman answered and she said, 'Yes she is.'

And I said 'Can I speak to her please?'

She said 'No, she can't talk right now, she's only 10 months old.'

I said 'Alright, I'll wait.'"

Steve Jobs, the CEO of Apple, died a billionaire. (1955~2011) Here are some of his last thoughts and words: "I reached the pinnacle of success in the business world. In others' eyes, my life is the epitome of success. However, aside from work, I have little joy. In the end, wealth is only a fact of life that I have become accustomed to. At this moment, I am on my sick bed and recalling my life. I realize that all of the recognition and wealth in which I took so much pride have become meaningless in the face of my impending death."

You can employ someone to drive a car for you and to make money for you; but you cannot employ anyone to bear illness for you. Material things, when lost, can be found; but the one thing that can never be found when it is lost is your health and eventually your life itself. When a person goes into the operating room, he realizes that there is one book that he has yet to finish reading, "The Book of Healthy Life".

Whatever stage in life we are at currently, in time we all face that day when the curtain comes down.

Treasure love for your family, love for your spouse and love for your friends. Treat yourself well and cherish others.

As we grow older, and hopefully wiser, we slowly realize that wearing a $3,000.00 or a $30.00 watch is not important. The time is the same. Whether we carry a $300.00 or $30.00 wallet/handbag, the contents are the same. Whether we drink a bottle of $100 or $10 wine, the hangover is the same. Whether the house we live in is 300 or 3,000 sq. ft., the loneliness is the same. Whether you fly first class or economy if the plane goes down, you go down with it.

You will come to realize that true inner happiness does not come from the material things of this world.

Therefore, treasure your buddies, old friends, brothers and sisters. Chat often, laugh, sing songs with them. Talk about north-south-east-west, or Heaven and Earth. That is true happiness."

While hiking the Blue Ridge Mountains in Tennessee one day I came across a gorgeous gorge that I thought was an echo canyon. I shouted, "Hello there." But the response sounded to me like, "Hello where?"

I tried again. "How do you do?"

A moment later the report came back sounding like, "How do I do what?"

Baffled and amused I decided to give it the ultimate test. "You're not really an echo canyon, are you?"

The response from the canyon confirmed my suspicions. "Brilliant deduction, Einstein." Hayden W., Mt. Ephraim, NJ
