God Bless America

In 1972 (aka "Hanoi" Jane Fonda) made a trip to Hanoi and broadcasted to American soldiers to cease fighting the Viet Cong

This trip became unforgettable because it infuriated Americans, especially Americans in uniform, many still regard her as a traitor. She praised the North Vietnamese, posed for a photo at a Communist anti-aircraft gun emplacement, made several radio broadcasts for the Communist North Vietnamese in which she called American military leaders "war criminals," then when some of the POWs returned home and described mistreatment by the North Vietnamese, she said Americans should "... not hail the POWs as heroes, because they are hypocrites and liars."

"I would think that if you understood what Communism was, you would hope, you would pray on your knees, that we would someday become communists."
Jane Fonda at Michigan State University quoted in Detroit Free Press 11/22/70

Most people/veterans did not know that General Dwight D. Eisenhower never saw active combat. Although he spent 35 years in the military and served during both world wars, Eisenhower never saw a single day of active combat. After graduating from the U.S. Military Academy in 1915, he served at various camps across the U.S.. Eisenhower requested an overseas assignment when America entered World War I, but he remained in training roles at home. By the time the U.S.. entered WWII more than two decades later, Eisenhower had risen to become one of America's top generals. He eventually was appointed supreme commander of the Allied Expeditionary Force in Europe. He became the 34th. President.

THAT LOOK ON YOUR FACE..

WHEN YOU STOMP ON THE AMERICAN FLAG IN FRONT OF A MARINE

Having passed the enlistment physical, Don was asked by the doctor, "Why do you want to join the Navy, son?"
"My father said it'd be a good idea, sir."
"Oh? And what does your father do?"
"He's in the Army, sir."

An Israeli soldier who just enlisted asked his Commanding Officer for a 3-day pass.

The CO says, "Are you crazy? You just joined the Israeli army, and you already want a 3-day pass? You must do something spectacular for that recognition!"

So the soldier comes back a day later in an Arab tank!

The CO was so impressed, he asked "How did you do it?"

"Well, I jumped in a tank, and went toward the border with the Arabs. I approached the border, and saw an Arab tank. I put a white flag up, the Arab tank put his white flag up.

I said to the Arab soldier, "Do you want to get a three-day pass? So we exchanged tanks!"

An Army colonel noticed one of his soldiers behaving oddly. The soldier would pick up any piece of paper he found, frown and say, "That's not it" and put it down again.

This went on for some weeks, until the colonel arranged to have the soldier psychologically tested.

The psychologist concluded that the soldier was deranged, and wrote out his discharge from the army.

The soldier picked it up, smiled and said, "That's it."

The Marine Corps has just been called by The York Times, 'The elite of this country.' I think it is the elite of the world.

During the Viet Nam war, a Lieutenant asked the soldier why he was falling back during a really fierce jungle battle, "Didn't you hear me say that we're outnumbered 4 to 1?"

The soldier replied, "I got my four Sir." Jay W., Berlin, NJ

Actress Jane Fonda and her chauffeur accidentally hit and kill a farmer's pig while driving through the country.

Jane tells her chauffeur to apologize to the farmer.

They drive up to the farm, which is flying the U.S., POW MIA and USMC flags.

He walks up a stoned walkway lined with dozens of smaller American flags with red, white and blue ribbons displaying the words 'Never Forget' tied to them. He knocks on the door, displaying a "Support Our Troops" banner, and goes inside.

He is gone for a long time.

When the driver returns, he explains his long absence, "Well, first the farmer shook my hand, then he offered me a beer, then his wife made me some cookies, and his daughter showered me with kisses."

"Why were they so grateful?" Fonda asks.

The chauffeur replies, "I don't know. All I told him was that I was Jane Fonda's driver and I'd just killed the pig."

When doing my para training with British Airborne we did our first two descents from 800 ft. from a static Barrage-balloon with a cage suspended below, (the other six jumps from aircraft).

Standing in the door of the cage with no sound except the gentle breeze blowing past and a very long way down, a recruit was heard to ask the R.A.F. Dispatcher, "If the parachute doesn't open, how long will it take me to hit the ground from 800 ft?"

The dispatcher calmly remarked, "You'll be about halfway through The Lord's Prayer". Asa G., Pemberton, NJ
