Soap & Water
 A minister was asked to dinner by one of his parishioners, who he knew was an unkempt housekeeper. When he sat down at the table, he noticed that the dishes were the dirtiest that he had ever seen in his life. "Were these dishes ever washed?" he asked his hostess, running his fingers over the grit and grime. She replied, "They're as clean as soap and water could get them." He felt a bit apprehensive, but blessed the food anyway and started eating. It was really delicious and he said so, despite the dirty dishes. When dinner was over, the hostess took the dishes outside and yelled, "Here Soap! Here Water!"

Hey DEVILer... I bought some shoes from a drug dealer in Camden. I don't know what he laced them with but I've been tripping all day.

According to Anderson Consulting Worldwide, around 90% of the retirees they tested got all questions wrong, but many preschoolers got several correct answers.
Anderson Consulting says this conclusively proves the theory that most retirees do not have the brains of a four-year-old.

 🗳️ The Incoming Democratic Congress has Hobby Lobby in their sights, hoping to force abortion funding. Having just won back control of the House, Democrats now have their sights set on an issue near and dear to people of faith: the sanctity of life. As they prepare to take over the chamber, 172 Democrats have agreed to co-sponsor legislation that would effectively cripple the 25-year-old Religious Freedom Restoration Act. (RFRA) was signed into law by Pres. Bill Clinton in 1993, is designed to protect employers from being forced to cover abortion-inducing forms of contraception. According to The Washington Examiner, H.R. 3222 would make it so LGBTQ rights and other progressive causes would take precedence over religious freedoms.
 👁️ The France 24 News Service recently posted a headline: "Has the world gone mad?" The article stated: "Mental health disorders are on the rise in every country in the world and could cost the global economy up to $16 trillion between 2010 and 2030." The World Health Organization (WHO) confirms the crisis. WHO says that approximately 300 million people now suffer from depression; 50 million from dementia; 23 million from schizophrenia; and 60 million from bi-polar disorder. They found that 1/3 of the world's college freshmen screened positive for a mental disorder. The American Psychological Association found that one-third of all US college students had difficulty functioning in the last 12 months because of depression.
 🐻 Nov. 20 (UPI) - A North Carolina teenager captured video of a family of bears that broke into her Toyota Prius and ate 49 chocolate bars she was selling for a fundraiser. Lilly Thurmond, 16, said she was at her home Sunday evening when she saw the mother bear and three cubs walk up her driveway. Later, the animals had "expertly" opened the door to her car. She said the bears ate 49 of the candy bars, leaving only a single dark chocolate bar untouched.
 🗑️ POOP TRAIN: A stinking trainload of human waste from New York City was stranded in a tiny Alabama town, spreading a stench like a giant backed-up toilet - and the "poop train" is just the latest example of the South being used as a dumping ground for other states' waste. Parrish, Alabama, population 982, the sludge hauling train cars sat idle near the little league ball fields for more than two months. Mayor Heather Hall said. The smell is unbearable, especially around dusk after the atmosphere has become heated, she said. April 12, 2018/AP
