The record-setting partial government shutdown, which began (Dec. 22), meant that hundreds of thousands of federal employees were being asked to work without pay or to stay home. But members of Congress still collected paychecks.

It's in the Constitution, as (The Washington Times) reported last year at this time, during a different shutdown: "Article I, Section 6 of the U.S. Constitution allows the lawmakers to still get paid their salaries, despite the federal government being shut down due to their inability to reach an agreement."

So... just how much do members of Congress take home? They've annual salary for most Senators, Representatives, Delegates, and the Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico is ($174,000). They also receive retirement, health and other benefits. (Not OBAMACARE!) they have their own insurance program. Speaker of the House: $223,500

Taxiing down the tarmac, the jetliner abruptly stopped, turned around and returned to the gate. After an hour-long wait, it finally took off. A concerned passenger asked the flight attendant, "What was the problem?"

"The pilot was bothered by a noise he heard in the engine," explained the flight attendant, "and it took us a while to find a new pilot."

Wait, wait... you're telling me...

If I pee in the yard, I get a TREAT?

South Virginia's beautiful Philpott Lake, built by the US Army Corps of Engineers. Great trails with lovely views, fishing and camping. Two buddies, one drove 600 mi. N. from AL and one drove 450 mil S from PA.. a fine beer thirsty reunion. Holding the DEVILer, Jim McDermott with Travis Hartman. We left it with the park Rangers, they said it would go to camper from another state, who knows where it will end up?

Submitted by Jim, husband of Unis McDermott (subscriber) Shorterville, AL

Here are few jokes sent in by Jim McDermott:

- Hey DEVILer... I lost my job at the bank on the first day of work. An elderly woman asked to check her balance, so I pushed her, she fell over.
- My friend thought an onion was the only food that would make him cry, so I threw a coconut in his face!
 - I love long walks.. Especially when taken by people who annoy me!
 - ALL the people down South have flabby thighs, fortunately their stomachs cover them!

"I left a copy of the Deviler with some of the men from the Coast Guard.

The otters, seals and sea lions along the bay loved the jokes. You should have heard them barking!

A guy goes into a pet shop and tells the owner that he needs a pet for his elderly mother. The guy says that Mom lives alone and could really use some company.

Pet shop owner says, "I have just what she needs. A parrot that can speak in 3 languages. She'll have a lot of fun with that bird."

The guy says he'll take the parrot and makes arrangement to have the bird delivered to his mother.

A few days pass and the man calls his mother. "Well Mom, how did you like that bird I sent?"

She says, "Oh son, he was delicious!" Aghast, the guys says, "Mom, you ate that bird? Why, he could speak 3 languages!"

Mom says, "well, he shoulda said something."
