Attention VETS & Friends of Vets We Need Your HELP!

A frantic mother telephoned the pediatrician's office and said her baby had a 103° temperature. The nurse needed to know if she was taking the baby's temperature underarm, orally or rectally, so she asked, "How are you taking it?"

The mother replied, "Oh, I'm holding up fairly well!"

A doctor broke the bad news to a man, that his wife would have to be admitted to a psychiatric hospital. "I'm afraid her mind's completely gone," he said.

"Makes sense," mumbled the man. "She's been giving me a piece of it every day for the last 40 years!"

Spanking in school: Any kind of physical force used as a means of discipline (slapping, spanking, paddling, etc.) is known legally as "corporal punishment."

If you were never spanked in school, perhaps it's because you grew up in New Jersey where corporal punishment in schools has been illegal since 1867. However, corporal punishment is permitted in the following states: AL, AZ, AR, CO, FL, GA, ID, IN, KS, KY, LA, MS, MO, NC, OK, SC, TN, TX and WY.

Don't cry because it's over. Smile because it happened. Fred M. Carmel, IN

Hey Devil... They always say that Albert Einstein was a genius. Then how come when anyone calls you that, it's an insult?

'You don't know where you parked the car? Good job, Einstein.' I don't think we're honoring that man properly by using his name in vain in parking lots. sent in by Sonya K., of Cape May, NJ

The SJ DEVILer: I bought one of those tapes to teach you Spanish in your sleep. During the night, the tape skipped. Now I can only stutter in Spanish.
