

Truth or Fiction?

The email that been circulating says that a session of the Kansas State Senate was opened in prayer by a Pastor Joe Wright. His prayer was a sizzling one and prompted controversy. The story says that several members of the Senate got up and walked out and that Paul Harvey aired the text of the prayer and it prompted the largest response he's ever had. The Truth: This event actually happened in the Kansas House (not Senate) in Topeka on Jan. 23, 1996. Joe Wright is the pastor of Central Christian Church in Wichita and was guest chaplain that day. He prayed a prayer of repentance that was written by Bob Russell, pastor of Southeast Christian Church in Louisville, KY. According to an article in the Kansas City Star from Jan. 24, 1996, his prayer did stir controversy and one member of the legislative body walked out. Others criticized the prayer. The controversy didn't end there. Later that year in the Colorado House, Republican representative Mark Paschall angered lawmakers by using Joe Wright's prayer as the invocation. Some members there also walked out in protest.

ABC radio broadcaster Paul Harvey did air the story and the prayer. He got such a large response that a phone number was set up to handle the calls. He's aired it a couple more times since.

"Heavenly Father, we come before you today to ask your forgiveness and to seek your direction and guidance. We know Your Word says, 'Woe to those who call evil good,' but that is exactly what we have done.

- We have lost our spiritual equilibrium and reversed our values.
  - We have exploited the poor and called it the lottery.
  - We have rewarded laziness and called it welfare..
  - We have killed our unborn and called it choice.
  - We have shot abortionists and called it justifiable.
  - We have neglected to discipline our children and called it building self esteem.....
  - We have abused power and called it politics.
  - We have coveted our neighbor's possessions and called it ambition.
  - We have polluted the air with profanity and pornography and called it freedom of expression.
  - We have ridiculed the time-honored values of our forefathers and called it enlightenment.
- Search us, Oh, God, and know our hearts today; cleanse us from every sin and set us free.. Amen!"

Remember when we had to smack the TV because the channel wasn't coming in clearly?

I feel that way about far too many people.

Comedian Robin Williams talks of Jesus: "And some people say Jesus wasn't Jewish. Of course he was Jewish! 30 years old, single, lives with his parents, come on! He works in his father's business, his mom thought he was God's gift, he's Jewish! Give it up!"

A bum on the street of Camden asked me, "Give me $10 till payday, I need it to pay my New Jersey property taxes." I asked, "When's payday?" He said, "I don't know, you're the one who's working!"

Another bum from Camden asked me, "Can I have $400 for a cup of coffee?" I told him, "Coffee's a buck!" The bum said, "Yeah, but I want to drink it in Florida... I can't afford the Murph's taxes!"
