

Joe Biden's Nightmare America

Americans who voted for Biden and those who voted for Trump are mostly unaware of the short & long-term changes they will experience once a Biden administration is up and running. The below forecasts is a history-based performance of past liberal/Democrat economic policies combined with the new promises made within the context of "The Green New Deal."

—Many middle-class Americans will fall into significant debt due to higher property taxes and higher cost of living expenses. These increased expenses will primarily result from higher energy costs and products directly impacted by those increased costs, such as food and home goods. But significant increases in taxes will also come from the proposed student loan cancellations and bailouts of businesses and other entities harmed by the Covid lockdown policies enforced mainly in cities and states controlled by Democrats.

—Unemployment numbers for lower wage-earning Americans will sharply rise due to an increase in competition of approximately 11 to 20 million illegal alien workers. All the record gains in increased Black and Latino employment numbers realized under the Trump administration's 4 years will vanish almost overnight.

—The increased unemployment numbers will increase crime and significant dependence on government subsidies translating into higher taxes needed to fund such programs.

Learning from the successfully stolen 2020 election, future elections will consist of mostly mail-in ballots, not requiring signature verification or proof of residence.

—The Biden will add approximately 7 million Americans back to the food stamps and 2 million Americans will fall back into poverty.

—Within the first 2 years Biden, with senate support, will increase the number of Supreme Court justices to 15 from the current 9. The new judges will all hold a radical left view of the law. This move will eliminate any future appointees to the court having originalist/conservative ideals. From this point on, the court will take a permanent hard left turn.

—The right to self-defense will only be available to the wealthy. Although the term "gun confiscation" will not be used, the new policies will have the same results. Ammunition and registered weapons will be taxed at rates, making it nearly impossible to own such items. Criminals (as always) will have no problem getting either.

—"Voluntary gun buybacks" will be the terminology used to take away self-defense weapons from Americans. The 2nd Amendment will exist but only on paper. With a new, more defenseless population, more stringent radical policies can be considered.

—Information for and communication between conservative Americans will cease to exist. The Biden administration and Congress will side with big tech to eliminate all conservative news items and information.

—Conservative Americans will no longer have a platform to discuss their ideas and will no longer be aware of government dealings. Although this fact of censorship is becoming more evident by the day, what a Biden administration will accomplish is a complete black-out of news and information. Americans will be given what to think and told what can be discussed.

—Anyone considering that ridiculous should consider the following: Conspiracy theorists and leftist radicals continue to uphold the Senate's handling of the Bret Kavanaugh confirmation hearing. However, without a speck of evidence, the left and their propaganda, "media" was able to destroy Kavanaugh's reputation without any fear of reprisal. Kavanaugh represents what can happen to any American not obeying the radical left.

—Conspiracy theorists and leftist radicals continue to ignore the mountain of evidence that the country experienced a highly coordinated multi-department coup attempt against the office of the Presidency. Americans might not feel comfortable about this subject, but if honestly looked at, it happened, and the guilty parties just walked away.

—Black Americans will no longer have high murder rates not because it does not occur, but because it will not be reported, America will become a country without corruption, not because it doesn't exist but because it will never be known.

—Whatever our country evolves into, it most certainly will not resemble what our forefathers envisioned. The US Constitution will be relegated to a historic document only. Unmoored from the Constitution, the country will be unable to turn to an established set of laws.

Crime will touch the elderly and unprotected first... Now is the time think and plan how you will protect yourself and family. NOW IS THE TIME TO ARM YOURSELF AND STOCK AMMO.

My fellow Americans... we brought this upon ourselves... We let it happen... Only God can save us now!

COVID Vaccine

This message... just out to the Center for Disease Control and all labs!

Here's something we can all agree on.

- 1. The vaccine should be tested on politicians first.
- 2. If they survive, the vaccine is safe.
- 3. If they don't, the country is safe.
